From the comforting sounds of violins and guitars to the flushing faces of happy two-steppers and waltzers. If you haven't experienced a Texas honky-tonk, then you haven't experienced Texas!

For a true Texas encounter you really need to leave the city, because it's in the country where dancehalls begin. They have served as the small town's courting stage, musician and singer's sounding stage and the dance lover's dream.

Well, Nelson City Dancehall serves up all of these and more. Located next to an old 1929 dancehall in Nelson City, Texas, this family owned treasure is the genuine article.

Promoting Texas music including Tejano, Country, Zydeco, Rock'N'Roll, Blues, and Bluegrass, Nelson City Dancehall provides live music every Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Musicians enjoy playing here because of the family atmosphere and the acoustics, and as one put it, "It's the most beautiful dancehall in this part of Texas."

Friday night is steak night! Dine, dance and have an excellent steak.

From San Antonio, take IH-10 west towards El Paso, exit 533 and continue ½ mile north.

From Kerrville, take IH-10 east towards San Antonio, exit 533, cross under interstate, and head north ½ mile.
